

Person type refers to whether the person is a victim or a suspect in an incident. It is used to identify a person's role in an incident.

Victims

Victims are all people who died in a suicide, violence-related homicide, legal intervention, as the result of a firearm injury, or from an undetermined manner.

Suspects

Suspects are all those suspected of having killed another person in an incident, whether intentionally or (in the case of some firearm injuries) unintentionally.